MANY WEAIGHERS ARE INVOLVED IN SUGAR SCANDAL

Investigation of Fraud in Custom Affairs Takes on Far Reaching Dimensions.

Government Will Not Let Up on Prosecutions.

NOTHING SAID OF MEETING.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Twenty-two assistant weighers of the New York customs house are known to have been implicated in, or under positive suspicion, in the so-called sugar trust frauds.

This was stated by Chairman Black and Messrs. McHenry and Washburn of the civil service commission. In answer to charges to the effect that appointments and removals at the New York customs house were at the dictum of the trust.

The statement given out by the commission is largely argumentative and designed to show the care taken in the preparation and rating of examination papers; how under the methods in vogue this is practically impossible for the commission examiners at Washington to show favoritism in rating; the authority given the appointing officers to examine thoroughly into the antecedents of eligibles and their power of removal if it is believed they had grounds therefor.

The information regarding the 22 assistant weighers came from the New York customs house. Two of the assistants were appointed without certification by the commission and the remainder were appointed by certification from 1885 to 1907. There are now employed in New York 126 assistant weighers.

The examinations by which they were chosen were prepared and rated in Washington. The examinations themselves were conducted by local boards in New York and elsewhere.

The commission sets forth, however, that the questions concerning the personal character of the applicants and their previous careers, having been satisfactorily answered, the eligible lists were prepared and certifications made from these to secure consideration in order in which they qualified. The appointing officers were authorized to file objections to eligibles and make investigations desired. Then the selections were made and at the end of a probationary period of six months the appointees' services were continued or discontinued, according to his worthiness.

The commission concludes: "The commission desires to emphasize that it used not only all precautions possible in the selection of eligibles, but left in the department's impaired power the sifting of such appointments and exercising the power of removal whenever this service required."

Taft Is Pleased.

Washington, Nov. 17.—None of the members of the cabinet who attended the cabinet meeting would discuss the matters considered with the president. One member said it was unnecessary for the cabinet to consider the "sugar trust" situation. The attorney general, and Secretary of the Treasury MacVegh are entrusted with the work of investigating and prosecution and it was stated that the situation is being handled to the satisfaction of Taft.

From the remarks of congressional leaders at the white house there was little doubt that the congressional committee will investigate the whole subject of sugar frauds and customs house corruption.

No Official Notice.

Washington, Nov. 17.—No official notice was taken by the treasury department of the controversy between former Assistant Secretary Reynolds, now a member of the tariff board, and Richard Parr, deputy surveyor of New York. The meat of the controversy appears to be the desire of Parr to obtain part of the line imposed upon the sugar trust for alleged tariff frauds. Parr laid claim to such amount as the treasury would allow him for the discovery of the frauds, out of the line imposed upon the sugar trust amounting to $2,000,000. Secretary MacVegh was not prepared to say what action would be taken on the claim.

According to the treasury officials there have been no change in the sugar trust investigation in the last few weeks.

Says He's the Man.

Martial Law Prevails at Cherry; Where Work of Recovering Bodies of Miners From Entries is Begun

It Was Feared That Rioting Might Ensur Upon Opening of the Mine and Troops Were Sent by Governor.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 17.—Despite the efforts of mine inspectors and Chicago firemen, the fire is hotter than ever. This noon the prospects were no effort will be made to recover the bodies for a week. A new danger is discovered. The water poured into the mine in such immense quantities that it is feared dangerous gases have formed, which might explode and blow the earth covering off the mine. This is said to be the reason why officers force the people 600 feet from the entrance to the mine. Pumping of water was stopped by noon when it is believed it only reached the bottom of the main shaft and did not effect the upper galleries.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 17.—This town is practically under martial law. The recovery of bodies of the buried miners will begin today under guard of state troops. Companies K and C, of the Sixth regiment, arrived today and surrounded the shafts of the mine. Company H is being held under arms at Mouthouth ready for instant mobilization. Troops were ordered by Governor Deneen after a special request from Sheriff Skoglund.

The troops discarded their arms and set about helping the people work about the top of the mine. At 8 o'clock this morning the seal was taken off the main shaft of the mine and Fire Chief Horan, of Chicago, and a company of Chicago firemen prepared to go down to fight the fire. Whether their efforts to recover the bodies will be made today will not be determined until 11 a. m. It is learned whether the flames are still raging. Horan said he believed the fire is practically under control. Miners who survived, will hold a mass meeting this morning to discuss plans for recovering the bodies still in.

The arrival troops has disquieted the miners, instead of helping. Many are making open threats against the company and persons responsible for bringing them here. Miners have a peculiar idea of soldiers. They never see them except during labor disputes, when soldiers always are against them.

Despite the icy wind hundreds of women and children gathered at the mouth of the shaft early this morning ready to identify the dead if the bodies are brought up. Soldiers and deputies tried to force them home, but they refused and stood shivering in the wind for hours.

Trouble is feared if the men get liquor. All saloons are closed, but several were seen intoxicated. Sheriff Skoglund asked for troops, because he feared a disturbance, as he heard of a plot by men from outside towns, who are determined to take control of the situation forcibly from the state mine officials and pursue their own rescue work.

Immediately after he was notified that troops are coming the sheriff ordered all dynamite in the village taken to the company's storehouse at either towns. He was threatened with grief-stricken mothers, who are not satisfied with the rate of progress made by the rescuers.

Troops Called Out.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 17.—Troops have been called for to prevent any untoward demonstrations when the bodies

Refining company and a close friend of the late Theodore Havemeyer, announced that he is the man referred to by former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Reynolds as the one who gave the department the first information concerning the frauds.

Anderson filed claims for compensation therefor, which he estimates will reach $1,000,000. For two years, he says, he has been furnishing evidence, and it was through him that Richard Parr gained his information.

Anderson declares that Reynolds was enthusiastically for the prosecution.

Anderson says the American Sugar Refining company requested his resignation after Havemeyer's death on the theory that "he knew too much." He then had been in the company's employ thirty-two years. As a result of his investigations, he says, he found that the government was being defrauded of at least $500,000 a year at the single refinery where he had been employed.

FATHER CONSENTS, BUT YOUNG LADY ACCEPTS ANOTHER

Miss Mary Davis and Samuel Winston Surprise Their Friends by Marriage

While Another Young Man Had Hopes.

WILL RETURN TO THIS CITY.

Miss Mary Davis, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Twenty-ninth and Tennessee streets, and Mr. Samuel Winston, a popular Illinois Central fireman, were married last night at Fulton.

This announcement is as surprising as it is interesting to their friends but to a well known young idle fellow of this city, it is a terrible blow. To have one's dream of love rudely shattered after he had gone so far as to pop the question to the young lady's father, and feel his courage rewarded with the parental consent, is hard enough, but to be awakened from the dream by the news that the young lady had eloped with another man was the shock he received.

He had gone to the father of Miss Mary Davis, and obtained his consent to their marriage. About the next thing he knew, Miss Davis and Mr. Winston had gone to Fulton and were married.

Yesterday Mr. Winston went into Pollock's jewelry store to have his watch repaired, and he met Miss Davis again. An old love was revived and the marriage for last night was arranged in a few minutes.

No objection to the marriage was offered by the bride's relatives, who learned of her plans in time to have phoned to Fulton and stopped the issuance of the marriage license.

Miss Davis was a clerk at Pollock's jewelry store and yesterday morning went to work as usual. As she did not return in the afternoon an inquiry was made by the family and then it was learned that she, with her older sister, Mrs. John Cashon, had left on the 6:15 o'clock train for Fulton. On reaching Fulton the ceremony was performed by Magistrate Furrill at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Cashon returned to Paducah early this morning while Mr. and Mrs. Winston will return in a few days and will reside at 938 Jefferson street.

The bride is an attractive young woman, popular with a large number of people to whom her marriage was a surprise. The groom is a fireman on the Illinois Central railroad running between Paducah and Fulton, and popular with the railroad men.

INTEREST IS GROWING

C., and the Tennessee state agricultural department will be here to tell the farmers of McCracken county the advantages and profits of live stock growing. Farmers in this county have been discussing the matter and will no doubt turn out in large numbers to be present. The lectures will begin at 11 o'clock on that day.

Large Catfish.

Probably the largest catfish ever caught in the river around here was captured alive in a net this morning by Charles Crouch and Oliver Miller, fishermen, while fishing below Brookport. It required several heavy blows over the head to kill it. Crouch and Miller brought the fish to Paducah this afternoon and sold it. It weighed 57 pounds.

The Weather

Paducahans were surprised and many caught in their summer coats this morning when the mercury dropped down to 38 degrees. A chilly wind all day failed to let the thermometer rise more than to the 40th mark, and freezing weather is the weatherman's man's prediction for tonight.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 17.—Public subscription has been started for the erection of a monument to the memory of Annie Polley, found murdered here a week ago. The appeal already has met with hearty support and it is now proposed to establish two memorials instead of one. When her relatives were found they expressed the wish that a monument be placed over the grave at Anna, Ill. Funds have been growing so rapidly that it was decided, not only to put up a fitting gravestone, but also to perpetuate her memory by a memorial in Cairo. Among the suggestions is that a memorial window be placed in St. Patrick's church, of which she was a member.

The fire started from an explosion of chemicals and spread so rapidly that many of the employees had to jump from windows to save their lives. There were many thrilling rescues.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 17.—After assuring the comfort of his mother, his wife and his children, Rice Combs walked sixty miles in order to return to the jail here from which he escaped last spring. It was some time when he reached home and Combs planted corn, potatoes, barley, hay and vegetables, tended them in the long hot months, harvested them this fall and when the winter's provisions were safely stored, he gave obedience to his country's laws according to his understanding of justice.

HER REVELATION; HIS CONFESSION

BOTH PROVE EMBROIDER'S WHEN

NO PERSON IS FOUND IN

CORPSE.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 17.—That Mrs.

Mary H. Mather was experiencing a nightmare instead of a supernatural revelation when she dreamed at her home in Seattle two weeks ago that her sister, Mrs. Mary J. Short, Topeka's "mysterious woman in black," who died about that time had been murdered, is indicated by the result of the investigation which she has been conducting here into the death of Mrs. Short. Until yesterday it was thought she was right in her belief that Mrs. Short had been successful to the extent of securing a confession from Fred Fanning, who had made his home with Mrs. Short, that he had killed her with poison administered in her coffee.

At the time of Mrs. Short's death a physician who was called in after her death, certified that she died of heart failure, a natural death. However, when Mrs. Mather arrived from Seattle she started an investigation soon after securing Fanning's confession and subsequent arrest. The body of Mrs. Short was exhumed and the stomach removed for analysis. The request was held and Dr. F. D. Gains, of Washburn University, who had made the analysis, reported that no trace of poison had been found and the coroner's jury rendered a verdict that Mrs. Short had died a natural death.

The explanation offered in the remarkable case, is that Fanning, who is extremely ignorant, a religious fanatic and subject to hallucinations, is not sane and was influenced to confess to poisoning Mrs. Short by the questioning and persuasion of Mrs. Mather, who believed that he had murdered her sister. Fanning is now being held on a lunacy charge.

Two Arrests at New Orleans—Conspiracy in Southern Towns.

New Orleans, Nov. 17.—As a result of an investigation which has been conducted here the last week into the alleged Chinese smuggling case, by the United States authorities, two arrests were made and several others are expected.

Laura Livandus, alias Emma Adams, who is a member of a well known family of this city, and a Chinaman named Low Chow, are the prisoners.

The investigation is said to have developed the fact that a conspiracy exists between a number of persons in this city and other southern cities, the object of which is to smuggle Chinese into the United States from Mexico through this and other southern ports.

BELL TELEPHONE CONTROLS

GOULD'S SELL INTEREST IN LATER CONCERN—BIG DEAL

Those Concerned Say It Will Be Better for Public and Stockholders—New Company May Have to Be Formed.

A BILLION DOLLAR CAPITAL

New York, Nov. 17.—It was announced in Boston and confirmed in New York that another billion dollar merger became a reality yesterday with the practical absorption of the Western Union Telegraph company by the American Telephone and Telegraph company. The Western Union, one of the net properties of Jay Gould, has been in the family for a generation, and by the sale of the Gould stock the merger was accomplished.

George J. Gould, chairman of the executive committee of the Western Union, said:

"It is a fact that we have sold a large part of our holdings of the Western Union to the telephone company. I believe this will insure to the benefit of both the public and the Western Union stockholders, as the business of both companies can be handled so that they form a complement to one another, thus giving to the fullest extent prompt and satisfactory service. They should be worked in harmony, which would be to the great advantage of the public, as well as the mutual interests of both companies."

While the report was current that the Mackay companies, controlling the Postal Telegraph company, will ultimately be included in the organization, no confirmation of this was obtained. The officers of the Postal emphatically stated that the company will remain independent.

Important Merger.

Boston, Nov. 17.—A long stride toward control by one corporation of all the wire communication in the United States was made yesterday in the acquisition by the American Telephone and Telegraph company of the Western Union.

The incorporation of a new billion dollar company, it is said, will be necessary to include the $592,175,400 bonds and stocks of the telephone company, known as the Bell Telephone company, and the outstanding $165,000,000 bonds and stocks of the Western Union. The acquisition of the stock of the Western Union by the Bell company has been quietly in progress for six months. Only a sufficient amount to insure control, said to be 51 per cent, was taken over.

The officers of the Bell company regard the step as one of economy solely. Since the telephone has been a factor it had to compete with the telegraph. Lines have been paralleled and there has been an immense amount of duplication. The officers believe the merger will save the Bell company $75,000,000 in new construction, also enable the utilization of the wires both for telegraphing and telephoning.

The history of the Western Union antedates the Civil war. The Bell company is of comparatively recent origin. Both pursued the usual method of absorbing the smaller companies. Those acquired by the Western Union were lost in oblivion. The majority of the stock of a dozen large telephone corporations and many smaller ones, rests in the treasury of the parent concern.

The telephone system annually transmits 5,354,800,000 messages. The Western Union handles 68,055,000.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Do Not Endanger Life When a Paducah Citizen Shows You the Cure.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness, headaches, languor, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them?

Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use, because it gives to the kidneys the help they need to perform their work.

If you have any, even one, of the symptoms of kidney diseases, cure yourself now, before diabetes, dropsy or Bright's disease sets in. Read this Paducah testimony:

W. H. Smith, 1309 South Third street, Paducah, Ky., says: "It is now almost ten years since I first used Doan's Kidney Pills, but I will never forget the great benefit this remedy brought me. I suffered for years from kidney trouble and was steadily growing worse. My back ached constantly and there was a steady pain through my kidneys. The kidney secretions were highly colored and proved that my kidneys were affected. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and to my delight they gave me immediate relief. I continued their use until cured and during the time which has since passed, I have had no return of kidney complaint."

Henrietta Croshaw and a strong company in the brightest comedy in which she has appeared in years played at the Kentucky theater before a good house last night, and as usual was compelled to respond to repeated curtain calls. Miss Croshaw has many admirers here.

"Sham" fairly sparkles with catchy lines, and Geraldine Bonner and Elmer Harris, the dramatists, did not omit any tricks to sustain the interest to the last. The piece is exceedingly well staged by Maurice Campbell.

"Sham" is well named. Although it is not written "for a purpose," it tells the story of a young woman, who, on a comparatively small income, is brought up to the idea of maintaining her social position by hook or crook and marrying money. During her career she meets and falls in love with an honest mining engineer from Idaho, and marries him—but that comes later. The performance opens at the home of the girl, Katherine Van Riper, the first of the month when the hills pour in, and the ridiculous side of the sham is kept forward throughout that act and the two succeeding.

"Sham" has its inconsistencies, as all shams have. The comedy is thoroughly American, superficial, broad, hilarious and enjoyable every minute.

Miss Croshaw, more slender of figure, and more winsome than ever, took a fresh grip on the hearts of her Paducah admirers last night.

Every member of her company seems especially adapted for the part assigned him, although Paducahans knew that Albert Brown is capable of better things than the reciting role of J. Montague Buck; for Mr. Brown is remembered as big hearted, resourceful "Jim" in "Paid in Full."

Edouard Durand, whose name suggests no difficulty in acquiring a French accent is fitted to the part of Jacques d'Eauville as a hand is to a glove, and he imparts an air of genuineness to the story, where it is most needed. Marguerite St. John and Emma Butler as the two weeping nuns, act in excellent taste. Paul Dickey, the leading man, is all that the part requires.

Other members of the company made distinct hits with their roles.

David Warfield—An Analysis.

What are the qualities that have brought David Warfield and "The Music Master" such large success? On the stage, and in the world of art, we have knowledge of things artistic in every way that have been approved by critic and admired by connoisseur, but which have remained unnoticed, or at least unappreciated, by the intelligent though uneducated "public." On the other hand, we have no record of any work in drama, in acting, in literature or the other arts, that has won lasting popularity—the favor of the "masses"—unless it possessed the elements of artistic genius. In other words the public—the uneducated public again—approves art without appreciating its essentials. It enjoys without analyzing. But there are some forms of art it does not even enjoy. The art that is universally enjoyed is that which strikes big notes of humanity and hope. Here, we think, is the explanation of the great popular success David Warfield has won in "The Music Master."

First of all, it must be admitted that this play by Charles Klein would be impossible without the great art of Warfield, and we know of no other Warfield than the David who is at present making millions of American playgoers laugh and weep in this very play, "The Music Master." It is Klein's message—or perhaps, it is Warfield's—that holds the public's ear, but it is Warfield's rare art—real, undepicted genius—that wrings its heart. Without that particular message Mr. Klein submits, without the human note "The Music Master" sounds, but with another less agreeable, Mr. Warfield would be fully as artistic, but his acting would not be so "popular." For instance, in Warfield's vehicle of last season, "A Grand Army Man," he revealed tremendous tragic powers, and created a character as artistically fine as the music master, but "A Grand Army Man" was more tragic than it was hopeful, and although more artistic than "The Music Master," and Mr. Warfield's acting even more powerful, the public did not enjoy it so well as the tender comedy to which Mr. Klein has attached his name. Seat sale now on for Thursday night.

With a mighty ensemble of 60 persons, singers, dancers and comedians, an unrivaled list of solo performers, and truly magnificent scenic production, in which is offered some of the most delightful of stage pictures, the Field show this season is one that will attract all who are fond of the minstrel form of entertainment. Doc Quigley, the man with the funny legs and the laughable facial contortions, heads a notable line of comedians, while the dancers—and a good minstrel show should have the best—are said to be the pick of the country.

"The Frog's Wedding" is one of the rollicking comedy offerings of this season's show, while the first part will offer a superb setting for the opening installment of myth and melody. Comes to The Kentucky Monday, November 22.

While problem plays and cynical society comedies are having their usual place in the production of the current theatrical season, pieces of the more wholesome type continue to receive the unqualified endorsement of the public; nearly all of the great successes on the American stage have been chiefly made by their purity and by the dominance of what stage folks are pleased to call "heart interest." "A Country Kid" has been playing all the past season to good business and giving satisfaction. At The Kentucky Friday.

"A Trip to Africa" will soon be the attraction at The Kentucky, matinee and night, on Saturday, November 20. The company includes "Madame Sissleretta Jones," "Jolly" John Larkins and 38 others. Great things are promised by the "Black Patti" show when it comes to pay its annual visit in "A Trip to Africa," the original three-act comedy, written by "Jolly" John Larkins, and staged under his personal supervision. The production this year has been greatly enlarged and the joint stars are "Madame Sissleretta Jones," the original "Black Patti," and "Jolly" John Larkins, the funny man. The musical hits include "Book-Tools," "In Zululand," "Mother's Child," "The Beaming Sun," "Happy Days," "Rag Time Hissail," "A Trip to Africa." The chorus has been well selected and their voices are well trained. The big acts with the show include "Cat's Jubilee" and the "Jungle Drill."

And any woman readers of The Sun can have attractive and lustrous hair in a few days' time by using this great hair restorer, Parisian Sage.

W. J. Gilbert sells a large bottle for 50 cents and he guarantees it to beautify and stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

Parisian Sage is an ideal hair tonic, not sticky or greasy and is sold by leading druggists everywhere. The girl with Auburn hair is on every bottle. Mail orders filled by American makers, Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

CROSMAN SUEED

CAIRO MANAGER WANTS $200 OF HER MONEY.

Have Cancelled There on Account of Unsettled Condition in the Town.

Helenetta Crosmann and her company were made defendants in a suit filed in circuit court yesterday afternoon by D. L. Williamson, manager of the Cairo theater, for $200 damages. He claims that he had a contract with the company for the production of the play "Sham" in his theater November 15, but that the company failed to produce the play. According to the contract he was to receive 20 per cent which would have been about $200. Deputy Sheriff Gus Rogers served the papers on Miss Crosmann last night, but bond was executed last night and the company proceeded to fill its dates. Manager Williamson cancelled the date on account of the unsettled condition there.

STEAM ROLLER IS TO BE SOLD AS JUNK

CITY WILL REALIZE PROFIT FROM ITS SALE.

Is Too Heavy and Was Taken Back at Valuation of $100 From a Receiver.

TO RESURFACE CITY STREETS.

The first steam roller that was used on Paducah's streets probably will be sold to the junk man. This was discussed yesterday afternoon at the board of public works, and E. H. Bell, street inspector, was instructed to find out the value of it as scrap iron, and report to the board. The roller is not worth the repairs that would be necessary to place it in running order, besides it is too heavy to use on the streets, as it crushes in the sewer pipe.

Even selling the machine for junk the city is expected to realize a profit, as it cost only $100. The roller was used for several years, but owing to its weight kept the street department busy all of the time repairing broken pipes, and finally it was taken as part payment for the present roller. The machine was repaired, but it did not find a sale, and finally the company went into bankruptcy. The receiver came to Paducah and the city took the roller back at $100. Most of the time since it has been in a shed at the light plant, and is fast deteriorating.

As scrap iron it is thought the roller will bring $150. One dealer has made an offer of $105, and if it will be at a profit to the city. The present space it occupies is needed to place other street machinery in shelter for the winter.

To Resurface Streets. With a vote of thanks the board accepted the offer of the Southern Industrial company to resurface the city's streets and sprinkle the streets with a coat of oil. The work will be done without cost to the city.

City Engineer Washington was instructed to contract the steam water sewer at Ninth and Clay streets, as directed by the general council. It will be necessary to extend the sewer about 1500 feet, but it is absolutely necessary in order to accommodate the flow of water when the new concrete sidewalks are constructed. Bids for the sidewalks will be opened next Tuesday by the board of works at a called meeting. City Engineer Washington said he had received 50 applications for plans and specifications as the result of placing advertisements in the municipal journal.

Street Inspector Bell reported the need of a new wagon, and two carts for the street department. He was instructed to get an estimate of the cost and report to the board.

The board of J. E. Jones was accepted with W. L. Yancey as surety. Jones received the contract for the grading and graveling of the alley between Parley place and Meyer street.

Present at the meeting yesterday were: President Richard Rader, Secretary Louis Kolb and Mr. Philis Jack.

Protect Horses. When Chief James Collins, of the police department, donned his new winter uniform this morning the first thing he did was to issue an edict for the protection of horses during the cold weather. The touch of cold weather when he arose brought this to his mind and every patrolman was instructed to arrest all owners of horses who failed to blanket the animal's standing for any length of time. Chief Collins said especially back drivers were warned to cover their horses at night when not driving or they would be "pinched."

MINE HORROR

of the 300 miners entombed in Saturday's disaster are brought to the surface.

Sheriff Skogant telegraphed to Springfield, asking Governor Deneen to send several companies of militia. No violence has been displayed and State's Attorney Eckhart hopes by the presence of a small guard to prevent any ill advised move by the miners whose feelings are wrought up by the loss of their comrades.

"We want troops at once. We will take no chances," declared Eckhart. When the bodies will be brought up is doubtful. None of the officials believe any of the men are alive. The fire in the mine yesterday was more intense than when the men were entombed. No efforts were made to enter.

District President McDonald, of the mine workers, in making the rounds discovered that a new baby had arrived at a home which had lost a father and son. The mother was kept ignorant of the disaster. Eighty-six homes were visited which, with the exception of children, were without male members.

The Ragging Theory. Only the most frail women who lost their husbands ventured to visit the shaft. These had to be almost forcibly taken back. Frequently a puff of smoke issued from the crevice in the shaft cover, evidence that fire is raging within. If bodies are found near the shaft, it was declared, it would indicate that the men perished by fire. If they are found in the distant galleries ventilation will be held to have been the cause. The repeated sealing of the mine is held to be sufficient to generate enough gas to kill the men in any part of the mine. The location of the bodies will also indicate about when the men died, for gases are not fatally dense until after the first fire is considerably subdued.

Two hundred and fifty pine boxes, in which will be buried the bodies when recovered, have arrived and are stored near the mine, although the fact is kept from the afflicted families. Manager Taylor said:

"Every man in the mine was put to sleep on the day the fire broke out.

There is no reason to arouse false hopes, and there is not ground for hoping that a single soul could have been found alive an hour after the fire.

"It is a mistaken idea that the miners could have hurried far out in the galleries and found oxygen enough to keep them alive for a day.

"The tests showed that on the day of the fire the air current had a velocity of 100 feet a minute. The longest gallery is three-quarters of a mile. The fire was intense and the smoke and white damp whirled to every corner of the mine. No living thing could escape it.

"The entombed men all breathed gas. Caught like rats in a trap, they went to sleep about as a person would in taking ether. It is not a painful death. I was twice overcome by gas, but renewed and recovered.

"We know that all are dead who were there, but we risked our own lives to satisfy the agonized relatives. Exploration has been a dangerous business. We don't want to lose any more lives. Yesterday I thought I was gone. I had been feeling about in the second vein 250 feet from the shaft, breathing oxygen in the apparatus on my back, and on returning toward the cage discovered flames. My first thought was that the cage was stuck owing to the heat. I thought my end had come, but when I reached the cage and gave the signal my heart lightened as it shot upward through the smoke to the free air. It is a mistake to think that sealing the shaft cuts off the circulation of air. Our anemometers have shown all along a good circulation of air in the shaft, but the fatal damage was done long before the mine was sealed the first time.

Will Do All Possible. "We will do everything possible to recover the bodies, because we believe the essential suffers will bury their dead. They will feel much better for a chance to clasp the dead in their arms."

President Easting, of the St. Paul railroad, is agitated by the obstacles to clearing the mine. He spent the entire day at the scene.

Pine was laid from the reservoir to the entrance of the shaft and a long lead hose dropped from it down the shaft. Two hundred thousand gallons of water brought in cars and water tanks were emptied into the reservoir as needed. The fire engine from La Salle forced the water Charity Workers Active. Cherry Hill, Nov. 17.—"Shoes, underclothing, quantities of women's and children's garments are urgently needed for the families of the victims. Also money necessary to take care of these people during the winter," declared E. P. McKinnell, of Washington, director of the National Red Cross society, after a conference with the charity workers here. An appeal was telegraphed to various cities in surrounding states. Soon a response came that supplies were quickly en route.

Headquarters were established from which charity will be distributed systematically. A corps of helpers was enlisted, who started on a canvass of the miners' homes. Each widow was required to state her circumstances. A typical report read:

Name: Marie Bohin. Victims of disaster: Husband and son.

Nativity: Austria.

Number of children: Four, aged 8 months, 3, 5 and 7 years respectively. Economic condition: Without funds, needs clothing and household supplies.

Plans for future: Would like to return to Austria. Does not speak English.

Last night the workers had not completed their task and no exact list of the number of men entombed has been obtained.

Assisting McKinnell are President McDonald, of the Mine Workers; Manager Taylor, Mayor Connolly, of Cherry; President Harvey, of the local miners; Superintendent Kingsley, of the United Charities, Chicago, and Patrick Carr, of the state miners' executive board.

A pathetic incident was the paying of the debts of the dead miners. Mayor Connolly stood behind an open window and questioned the line of women, who, being identified, were given time checks and paid.

Hanks Second.

Washington, Nov. 17.—According to the records of the technologic department the Cherry mine disaster will rank second greatest in this country. Only that at Monogah, West Virginia, in which 356 miners lost their lives, furnished a greater death list.

It was stated at the department that the death rate of miners in the United States until 1908 increased faster than the production of coal.

During 1907, 3,200 men perished in mine disasters. That year congress appropriated $150,000 for the educational experiment work among miners and after a year's work along these lines the fatalities in 1908 were 2,450.

Militia Arrive. Cherry, Ill., Nov. 17.—Two companies of militia, from Galesburg and one from Kewanee, under command of Colonel Dickson, arrived at midnight.

First on the List

Faust Spaghetti is not a "last resort" food. Once you've tried it you'll say to the groceryman "First of all, FAUST SPAGHETTI," instead of tacking it on at the end as a mere afterthought. First on the list because you know you can prepare it in endless different ways. First on the list because the family never tires of it. First on the list because it's so nourishing and because it costs so very little.

FAUST BRAND SPAGHETTI

is a wholesome American product that reaches you fresh and clean in sealed packages. Try the recipe shown here and see how good it is. See how its wonderful cooking usefulness relieves you of the vexatious question "what to have for dinner?"—how it keeps up your table-reputation and down the cost.

Try it to-day. Sold by nearly all grocers—only five and ten cents a package. Also write for book of Faust Spaghetti recipes, sent free on request. MAULL BROTHERS, St. Louis, Mo.

Daily Thought.
Wisdom, like flowers, requires cultivation.—Hosie Hallen.

The home consumption club has no connection with the anti-tuberculosis association.

Governor Haskell, of Oklahoma, will now be forced to directly answer to the indictments for land fraud.

It is now up to the shanty-tenters
to get back at those who would tax
them, by encouraging the movement
in favor of a single land tax.

Herbert Parsons, the Republican leader in New York, should have known that overindulgence in sugar
plums would cause him misery.

A wireless apparatus to cost $3-600,000 is part of the New York police equipment. That does not mean that Tammany has lost control of the department.

President Taft has no intention of permitting the whole national administration to suffer cramps from over indulgence in sugar plums in New York. He intends to purge the department.

Since Charles Diekens visited this country Calvo has got into print five times; twice on account of earthquakes, twice on account of presidential trips down the Mississippi
and once on account of a lynching.

Five carloads of haled hay, being hailed to the underground stables
of the St. Paul mine at Cherry, Ill., ignited from an open torch along the track, and caused the death of nearly 400 miners, according to information secured by a newspaperman sent to investigate the catastrophe.

REFORM.

The Lexington Herald, which received a severe whipping in the recent election, after the Democratic city officials were ousted for fraud,
now comes forward with a proposal
for the Massachusetts ballot, discussing the party device, and a constitutional amendment patterned after the Massachusetts suffrage provision. The Lexington paper, whose city for four years has been in the hands of the patrons, will promise that the legislature name the police board of cities of the first class. We anticipate from Paducah the proposal of a reform, placing the public printing of all of the second class in the hands of the city clerk. Some of our contemporaries are sure are great on reform.

OUR BROTHERS.

In a speech before the Frankfort Y. M. C. A. Justice O'Leary, of the court of appeals, said that every feature of the life of the convict that smacked of slavery must be abolished, and that the convict, instead of being a slave to the state, should be regarded as its ward for correction.
He said that convicts should be paid for their work and this money should be given to their families for their support. While society demanded that the criminal be guarded and imprisoned, yet he said they should be treated as men. The stripes are being removed from the clothing of convicts said Judge O'Leary, and the people will find that they will not be put on the convict's back with a lash.

The Judge O'Leary aligns himself on the side of the broadest minded, best thinkers of the age. The reformation of the prison, the abolishment of the idea of punishment and
the adoption of the idea of correction, are no longer untried theories. Reformatory work in open fields, unchained and unguarded. The only two attempts to escape were frustrated by the prisoners themselves, who are upon their honor.

This is truly an age of reasons.
People are asking the question,
"Why?" There is a cause for everything; a cause for men and women going wrong, and if we can discover and remedy that cause, we are saving time, and money, and misery and souls. Let us not in all our speculations get very far from the fundamental fact that we are all mortal sojourners in this world, and the distinction, that money, social position and worldly opportunity puts between our careless transgressions and the earnest sins of our neighbors are these earlier sins of our neighbors are so insignificant as to be indistinguishable when fundamentally are considered. To be just is to cease to be ridiculous.

SPEAKING GOOD OF THE DEAD.
"The Memphis Commercial-Appeal,"
says the Lexington Gazette, "pays high editorial tribute to Wulkeor Kennedy, one of the editors of that paper, whose sudden death occurred last week. The writer remembers Mr. Kennedy when he was on the Courier-Journal some fifteen or twenty years ago, and can testify
that all that the Memphis paper says
of him is true. For some reason, however, Mr. Kennedy seems to have had a spite against Kentucky and in every line he wrote about the state's affairs he showed the effect of his understanding the situation or purposely misrepresented them; a charge
that we did not wait until his death to make. One of his hobbies was to write as harshly as possible of Breathitt county and Judge Hargis.
However, it is not the intention to speak ill of the dead."
Go as far as you like on that strain, brother. You are speaking nothing but good of him.

SOME STORIES
AROUND TOWN

Capt. George Donnelly, general manager of the Ryman line of steamboats, has double-crossed "Meddlesome Mattie" reporters, as he calls them, and has proven to be a sphinx
of navigation indeed.

"What do you know this morning," were the words a reporter
addressed him with one morning.

With a smile he said: "You are the best one I would tell anything I know it."

"Then how do you expect me to fill up the river column?" the paragrapher responded.

Captain Donnelly smiled one of those smiles that was convincing that he was not going to let anything get away from him. Then he said he was as silent as a sphinx and when the river rose he might be able to divulge a few pointers. Captain Donnelly has been in Paducah several weeks looking after the repairs to the Ryman line boats of Nashville and is pleasant enough and even too pleasant in answering reporters' queries.

Automobiles will be automobiles,
and bicycles will be bicycles; but when a bicycle steers head-first into an automobile there is something unusual the matter with a bicycle. This occurred a few nights ago at Third street and Broadway, when Dr. W. C.
Eubanks was driving around the corner in his machine. Perched upon a high frame bike was a little pleckanin, going in the opposite direction. He became frightened, it is alleged, and began wobbling from side to side. The first thing Dr. Eubanks knew the little negro had wobbled right into the front of his car and fallen sprawling to the street. He got up as quick as he had gone down
and rode off with his bike damaged somewhat. Fortunately this time for the auto it wasn't to a great extent.

Although the society satire, "Sham,"
presented at The Kentucky last night
by Henrietta Crossman, was not written especially to point a moral, one millionary establishment in Paducah profited by it, just the same. The millionaire had no more than reached her place of business this morning,
when she was called to the telephone
by a woman, part of whose large bill had become "outlawed," and informed that the woman wished to pay what she owed. Other retail merchants
may now agree with Shakespeare,
"The play's the thing."

For God's sake let her vote!

That would do;
Let her vote!

STATE PRESS.

Put the ballot in her hand!
Let's have peace;
Aye, if she please
Let her command
The ship of State,
Be the seas
Or smooth or rough;

—So we down or come to port!
I know when I've got enough;
I'm no beg;
Let her vote!

sented by their legislatures on the subject. We believe the average Kentucky man is really very willing for lawful Kentucky mothers to have one-half the right in their own children that the mother of an illegitimate child now has to her child.
The average Kentucky man would not uphold a father who defied the rights and desires of the mother with regard to her children.—certainly not the father who exercised his power to take his children away from their mother, or even, so far does the law
go, to will away an unborn child.
But Kentucky men are lazy and careless in making their laws represent public sentiment, except in answer to some pressing demand.

The second request of the Kentucky Equal Rights association will be for women on the boards of penitentiary and educational institutions. This is an advance that has already been effected in the more progressive states. Much of the most valuable work done in these states, which take the lead in the management of their penal institutions, their corrective institutions for young people, their asylums for the afflicted, the deaf,
the blind, the insane, has been done by the women on state boards of charities and correction, and on the local boards managing these institutions.

The last demand of the Suffrage association is for the submission of a constitutional amendment allowing the vote of women in Kentucky. All they ask is that the legislature express its willingness to leave the question of whether women in Kentucky shall vote or not vote with the people. Surely this is a simple request. We claim to believe in the rule of the majority. If the women are willing to put the matter to the test of the wish of the majority of men, surely a male legislature should not stubbornly refuse them this permission.—Lexington Herald.

REVIVAL

SERVICES AT SECOND BAPTIST
CHURCH.The Rev. J. T. Earley, of Jackson
Baptist Church, is assisting.

The Rev. J. T. Earley, of Jackson, Tenn., arrived in Paducah yesterday afternoon to assist the Rev. G. H.
Smalley in a series of revival meetings at the Second Baptist church.
Mr. Earley is pastor of the West Jackson Baptist church and a preacher of great power. He is well known throughout his native state,
where he has held many very successful meetings. He is an alumnus of Union University and a magnificent speaker. Wherever he has labored great success has crowned his efforts. It will be a great blessing to the Second Baptist church and the community to have such a man labor among them. Services will be held at 2:30 and 7:15 p. m. The general public is cordially invited to these services.

REPAY GAMBLING MONEY.

Unique Will Is Filed by Time-
Missouri Gambler.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 17.—One of the strangest wills ever made here came to light yesterday, when the last testament of George Brown, Jr., well known as a gambler and race
horse man, was filed in the probate court.

"It is my desire, as far as possible," the will reads, "to repay every person, man, woman or child, any money which I may have won from them by gambling during my life time, and I direct my executors to make effort to learn their names and reimburse them to the full amount with interest from the day the money was won."

Another strange provision of the will is for a tombstone to be erected above himself and wife, which will bear only their given names, omitting the name "Brown."
George Brown, Sr., who killed his son's wife with an Indian club about a year ago, surrendered himself at the penitentiary recently to begin his sentence, though the supreme court has not yet rendered a decision in his case.

STATE RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS

Debate on Alleged Attempt to Limit Powers.

Washington, Nov. 17.—The contention of many members that an attempt is being made to limit the power of the state railway commissioners caused an animated discussion at the opening of the convention of the National Association of Railroad Commissioners. It came over the recommendation that the commissioners be authorized to prescribe uniformity in classification for interstate traffic, and raising the same commission to make excessive charges. Commissioners overlaid, of Ohio, and others, contended that those who voted for the recommendation were in violation of their duty, and that the commission on interstate shipments.

Commissioner Clark, of the later,
of the commerce commission, declared
the Union effort in passing them
in violation of the commission.
Clark wanted the convention to reject the recommendation. He was voted down, 15 to 39, and the recommendation adopted.

LION ATTACKS TRAINER.

Victor Saves Woman From Death
With Frightening Iron.

Springfield, O. Nov. 17.—Just as he had finished singing and was leaving the stage in a local theater last night, Mrs. Bertha Mowbray, an actress, of Columbus, O., was attacked by a lion which she had been feeding (among a number of tigers).
The animal sprang upon her and bore
her down. One of its huge paws struck her leg, the claws cutting three deep gashes, about four inches long and nearly an inch deep.

With tall switching and roaring with rage the beast stood over the woman's helpless form. Alfred Camm, one of the actors, seized a prodding
rod and drove the lion into his cage.
The actress will recover.

WARRANT FOR WOMAN

Issued Yesterday by the Cincinnati Authorities.

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—Warrant is in jail and a warrant has been issued for Mrs. Jeannette Stewart-Pord, charged with receiving $1,000 of the $213,000, which Warriner is accused of having embezzled. Warriner told Prosecutor Hunt that he had given part of the stolen money to Mrs.
Ford. Yesterday afternoon Warriner pleaded not guilty to the indictment for embezzlement and grand larceny.
His bond was again fixed at $20,000,
but the bondsmen who came to his assistance when he was first arrested
did not renew the pledges.

WOULD REJECT BUDGET.

Lord Lansdowne Gives Notice of His Intention in Lords.

London, Nov. 17.—In the house of lords Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition, gave the formal and expected notice of his intention to move
for the rejection of the budget bill when it comes up next Monday. As the unionist peers hold the same commanding position he the upper house as do the radicals in the house of commons, Lord Lansdowne's motion undoubtedly sends the fate of the financial bill and assumes a general election in January.

PARASITES ARE PLENTIFUL

Have you ever had a close look at a tapeworm? Have you ever seen instead? Have you ever seen its thousands of tails, each with a separate mouth, which absorbs the nourishment intended for human sustentation? If you have not just call on Philer, the Quaker Health Teacher,
at W. B. McPherson's drug store, corner Fourth and Broadway, and he will be glad to show you some specimens. Tapeworms are common, very common, and many people who suffer from chronic complaints of the liver, kidneys or stomach, will never again
spend a healthy day unless the first cause of the trouble is removed, and this cause is none other than a tapeworm.

People don't always know that they have a tapeworm; they will be suffering from a collection of supposedly stomach troubles, grow weaker
each day, get up in the mornings with a red, restless feeling, have irregular and infrequent, and receive treatment for those ailments,
when in reality the true cause of the whole trouble is a tapeworm. These horrible monsters are day by day getting the best of the person in whose system they are thriving, sucking the very life from them—seldom a disease
that doesn't lead to an early death.

People don't hear in mind that this terrible enemy possibly be cured
except by removing the cause—extracting the worm. Those death-dealing monsters are due to the eating of raw or poorly cooked meats. A slice of this kind is dangerous, for it may contain the eggs from which these worms originate, so unless it is cooked sufficiently to kill the egg it is taken into the stomach, where it hatches, and grows at an astonishing rate, either each day, until it has reached enormous proportions, and poison you down, making you fit for nothing.

Should this most heinous of any one who is afflicted with one of these monsters, now is the opportunity to get rid of it. Quaker Extract will expel it, surely and quickly, without doing you pain, in a few hours.
Philer can be seen at McPherson's
drug store, Fourth and Broadway, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily, where he will be glad to give any tapeworm sufferer a bottle of Quaker Extract
free, to prove his claims.

Multiple Propeller Type Meets With Accident in New York.

New York, Nov. 17.—The Riggs-Rio dirigible airship, built to try out the idea of steering by multiple propellers instead of a rudder, had a brief moment in the air at the Morris Park aviation experiment grounds today.
At the start the inventor, Joel E. Rice, in attempting to rise to clear a tall obstruction by elevating the two propellers, which work vertically, raised them too far and one caught in a cord attached to the gas bag, breaking a propeller blade. The airship otherwise undamaged, was jolted down by the holding rope.

"Mr. D. R. Cornet, of this city, is to be one of the groomsmen."

OUR VIRGIN RESOURCES.
Illinois and Missouri Have Lands Never Cultivated.
Chicago, Nov. 17.—Five thousand square miles of land in Illinois, or an area equal to that of Connecticut, is subject to inundation by an overflow of streams, according to an address made by Gov. Deneen at the opening session here today of the National Farm congress. The streams, the governor added, are being studied to the end that the water may be turned to profit instead of loss.
Gov. Hadley, of Missouri, in his speech surprised his hearers with the statement that there in his state 12,500,000 acres of undeveloped farm lands, all within a few hours of the markets of St. Louis and Kansas City. The soil is suitable for raising corn and cotton and is selling at from $10 to $20 per acre.
This noon, when settled, the speaker declared, will afford homes for 500,000 persons.

Who Ever—
Heard a welkin ring?
Or sat on his loveliest right hand?
Or joined a young lady in a cup of tea?
Or saw a rafter split with laughter?
Or caught a cow with a cow-catcher?
Or fairly raised a roof with his shouts?
Or dropped his eyes to the ground?
Or winced his enemy with a glance?
Or was frozen by one?
Or stashed by the same?
Or has his heart run away with his head?
Or hitched his wagon to a star?
Or ran a joke into the ground?
Or saw a little pitcher with big ears?
Or a cat that would give seven cents to look at a king?

REGULATION BY THE GOVERNMENT

URGENTLY NEEDED IN CASES OF GREAT MONOPOLIES.

The Civic Association in Session at Cincinnati Addressed by Garfield and Eliot

AT LAST NIGHT'S MEETING

Cincinnati, Nov. 17.—Pleas for government regulation of monopolies were voiced before the convention of the National Municipal League and the American Civic Association by former Secretary of the Interior Garfield and President Emeritus Eliot, of Harvard.

Garfield asserted that the country's natural resources were in imminent danger of exhaustion and the interests which develop this source of national wealth must be regulated upon the same lines already adopted in the respect to railroads. Said he:

"Exactly as the railroads are regulated, because they deal with public interests, the unfair use of monopolization of either is intolerable."

Garfield also maintained that the interests of the people are not properly safeguarded in the Alaska coal fields and that legislation on that subject is urgently needed. He added:

"The people will not tolerate any backward steps. They demand, and will see that their demand is heeded, that the great policy of conservatism be carried on in the interest of public welfare."

Eliot said: "The sentiment of preserving our natural resources has gone like wild fire throughout the country. The people have reached positive convictions and mean to have conservation. It is the experience of the American people that when a monopoly establishes itself, whether of labor or of capital, it is time for government regulation. Many monopolies are inevitable, and when such is the case the proper supervision is essential."

Many papers on municipal subjects were read.

Keeping Up Appearances.

Mrs. Philletter and her husband had just moved into a $15 seven-room house. The first Sunday morning there, as Mr. Philletter sat with his morning newspaper on his little porch, and all the neighbors on both sides of the street sat with their newspapers on their little porches, Mrs. Philletter suddenly came to the front door and shouted at her husband in a loud, vexed tone:

"Hilary Philletter, will you or will you not come into luncheon? The champagne is nearly flat, and you know how soon a dish of terrapin gets cold!"

Philletter tossed down the comic section and hurried indoors with a dazed smile.

"What are you kidding me for?" he asked as he looked at the rump steak and potatoes on the dining table.

"It's not you, Hilary, I'm kidding," said his wife. "It's the neighbors."—Exchange.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM.

Every Woman Should Read This Advice and the Generous Offer That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a more mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman can not be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it falls to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test.

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Renall Mac-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Renall Mac-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will lend back your money. Renall Mac-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Renall Remedies in Paducah only at our store.—The Renall Store, W. B. McPherson, Fourth and Broadway.

GETS BROOM READY

TATT'S SWEEP WILL BE A WIDE ONE.

Activity to Begin By Cleaning Out Corruption in Custom House.

New York, Nov. 1.—With it understood that Attorney General Wick

erham for three hours discussed the sugar frauds with President Tatt on his train en route for the football game at New Haven, and with Secretary of the Treasury Franklin MacVeach contemplating the broad sweep of the sugar industry, only to turn his attention to the New York custom house and labeling it "a nest of corruption," and with the indictment yesterday of the general superintendent of the Williamsburg plant of the American Sugar Refining company for alleged frauds practiced on the government, it now looks as if Uncle Sam, with the president down the scale to the humblest employes all co-operating, will come into his own, punish the guilty, clean out the sugar trust and sweep out the custom house.

That the affairs of the sugar trust at this time have assumed proportions of national importance is shown by the activity of the department of justice, at the head of which is Attorney-General Wickersham, and the investigations by the treasury department, at the head of which is Secretary MacVeach, who has caught the custom house under the same shadow with the sugar trust.

The indictment of Henderson is said to be only the precursor of a big missionary propaganda. Some surprise was felt in the local business set when Henderson who for twenty years has been a power in the sugar trust, and who was paid a salary of $20,000 a year, and who for thirty-five years has been identified with the sugar plant in Williamsburg, where he has won a position of confidence and influence among his fellow citizens, handed in his resignation so quietly.

Controlling Saloons in Texas.

Texas has invented the most novel of all methods of fighting the saloon in a city where the number of saloons is limited all licenses were secured by Prohibitionists. It remains to see whether the Sahara Desert will be discovered in that locality.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Did you enjoy your visit to the big city?"

"Well," answered Farmer Corntos, "it was something of a change to see the sign 'Beware of pickpockets.' In the depot, instead of 'Look out for the locomotive,' here, at the grade crossing."—Washington Star.

Aldrich Has No 1st Plan.

Midwaukee, Wis., Nov. 1.—Before an audience of fully 1,200 people, Senator Nelson W. Aldrich explained the work of the national monetary commission, of which he is chairman, and repeated his appeal for the general assistance of the business world in the reformation of the currency and banking system of the country upon which the commission has entered. Mr. Aldrich told again of the operations on the central banks of England, France and Germany, and while it was evident he desired that they should be regarded as an object lesson, he still insisted that he had in mind no plan beyond the general idea of reshaping and reforming of the law so as to render impossible the recurrence of the panic of 1907.

"What sort of a chap is he?"

"Well, he's one of those fellows who think that anything mean is a joke if it isn't on him."

$600,000,000 IN SEVEN YEARS

A WALL STREET STATISTICIAN MAKES STARTLING FIGURES.

Rockefeller Owns One-Third of Company and on That Basis Would Receive $100,000,000.

PROFITS OF STANDARD OIL

New York, Nov. 17.—That the Standard Oil company has made profits of nearly $600,000,000 in seven years from 1902 to 1909, is figured out by one of Wall street's statisticians. This year's profit is estimated at $80,000,000. The approximate figures, allowing $80,000,000 for 1909, are $593,202,000.

In this time the company has distributed $218,594,300 in dividends. According to Wall street, John D. Rockefeller could build several universities, organize societies to stamp out the "hookworm" and do other things that would cost the spending of millions from his share in the dividends without touching his fortune from other sources.

Mr. Rockefeller is supposed to own about a third of the Standard Oil stock. On that basis he received $106,198,000 out of the $318,594,300 paid to shareholders in the shape of dividends, or about $6,000,000 more than the capitalization of the company.

For the 17 years since 1892, the net profits of the company are estimated at $600,000,000.

TRUTH ABOUT CATARRH

Sensible Methods Will Cure It. W. J. Gilbert Guarantees Hygienic to Cure Catarrh.

Catarrh can never be cured by taking medicines into the stomach nor by sprays, atomizers or douches.

Intelligent physicians have long ago discarded such means and not one of them would be worth consideration were it not for the fact that unscrupulous persons prey upon the ignorance of the people in regard to new discoveries.

Catarrh is caused by germs and just as long as these germs thrive in the folds, crevices, nooks and corners of the mucous membrane that line the nose, throat and chest, just so long will you have catarrh.

There is only one way to cure catarrh, and that is to kill the germs.

There is only one remedy that will kill the germs when it gets where the germs are, and that is Hygienic.

Hygienic is made chiefly from Australian Eucalyptus and Eucalyptol combined with other germ killing antiseptics. Just breathe it in through the hard rubber inhaler that comes with each outfit and relief is immediate. Used regularly for a few weeks Hygienic (pronounced High-o-met) will cure chronic catarrh. Complete outfit $1.00 at W. J. Gilbert's and leading druggists everywhere.

Plants never freeze in a home heated by COLE'S HOT BLAST

You know where plants never freeze it doesn't get cold.

Cole's Hot Blast maintains a continuous fire; it will hold fire from Saturday night to Monday morning; it will keep fire over night with a hot full of coal. With this stove you need only open a draft in the morning and the rooms are quickly heated with fuel put in the evening before. No other stove does this.

Cole's Hot Blast stove saves half the soft coal or slack or lignite, because it burns the gas as it arises from coal, and as gas is half the fuel in coal, Cole's Hot Blast makes soft coal, slack or lignite go twice as far as any ordinary stove.

The unequalled fuel saving, the heat radiation, the even temperature, the holding of fire, are all the result of the patented features in the construction of this remarkable stove which cannot be used in making any other stove; and to the Patented Hot Blast draft which burns the waste gases in the fuel. Soft coal, as you know, is half gas. The makeup of the stove is interesting. Recall: In an ordinary stove the gas (half the heat value) arises from the coal as the coal burns and the gas goes right on up the chimney. In Cole's Hot Blast the hot blast draft on top of the fire burns the coal from the top—burns the gas. Makes the coal last twice as long.

HULL OF SUNKEN GRACEY CHILDERS IS A MENACE.

Capt. John Summers and William Berry, steamboat men, who bought the wreck of the steamer Gracey Childers, which burned to the water's edge at the foot of Jefferson street, several months ago will be compelled by the board of public works to remove the hull of the steamer on account of the danger in the rising river. After the Childers burned Captains Summers and Berry bought the wreck and raised the sunken machinery, leaving the hull where it was. This morning City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., notified President Rudy, of the board of public works, that the rising river would float the hull, endangering other craft. The Childers was owned by the Tynes steamboat line of Nashville.

Thefts of beer bottles from the storerooms of the Henderson Brewing company, 225 South Second street, by small boys were reported to the police department today and patrolmen were ordered to keep a lookout.

Lived 152 Years.

Win. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 29 years longer. People should be youthful at 80, James Wright, of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking a bottle of Electric Bitters. For thirty years Kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth. They're a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down or old people. Try them. 50c at all druggists."

Theaters in London and all over England are complaining of small receipts, and lay the trouble to the moving picture shows, which are very popular and range from a black lined tent to the theater in Piccadilly, where there are music and tea.

A REWARD OFFERED.

Every electric railway in the United States knows the menace of "fake" accident claims and fraudulent suits. And no honest citizen exists who would not give assistance to prevent any such corrupt cause coming before our courts in the disguise of woe.

Sometimes the sad-faced rascal who is bringing suit was near an accident but did not receive a scratch; sometimes it is an innocent looking criminal who was not even near an accident; sometimes it is a person who was actually hurt but who was to blame himself or herself—and knows it.

Most of these suits arise when some penny-catching lawyer gets hold of a so-called "victim" as dishonest as himself and wants to "share the profits" of suing the Company.

How are such suits maintained?

By perjury.

By witnesses who do not tell the truth.

For evidence upon which a conviction, for perjury, of any witness against this Company in an accident damage suit is obtained, this Company will pay $500.00 at any time during twelve months from date of this offer!
